SPECIAL BULLETIN:
The Glendale 2010-11 Proposed Budget for Community Review Now Available Online!

Dear Cactus Residents:

As in previous years, the development of Glendale's budget is an open process designed to reflect the needs and desires of our community. Throughout this process, the Council and city staff obtain input from the community through neighborhood meetings, citizen boards and commissions, public meetings and other contacts with individuals and groups.

Now available on the city's 2010-11 Budget Web Site is the Glendale 2010-11 Proposed Budget for Community Review.

The Glendale 2010-2011 Proposed Budget for Community Review is intended to provide you with an overview of potential budget adjustments for next fiscal year. These adjustments will address an anticipated $14.7 million shortfall for Glendale's budget, which begins July 1, 2010. Click here to access this document.

Your feedback through this process is greatly appreciated!
