- 23.2 Developer will, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of Developer, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, disability, national origin, financial status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

Section 3 requires that, to the greatest extent feasible, opportunities for training and employment be provided to low and moderate income residents of the Project area, and that contracts for work in connection with the Project be awarded to business concerns which are located in, or owned in substantial part by persons residing in the Project area.

24.4 Compliance with the provisions of Section 3, the regulations set forth in Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and all applicable rules and orders of HUD issued thereunder is a condition precedent to federal financial assistance being provided to and continuing to be provided to the Developer. Such compliance will be binding upon the applicant or recipient for such assistance, its successors, and assigns. Failure to fulfill these requirements will subject Developer or recipient, its contractors and subcontractors, its successors, and assigns to those sanctions specified by Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended, and may be cause to terminate this Agreement.

It will be the responsibility of Developer to notify the City promptly in writing whenever a delay is anticipated or experienced, and to inform the City of all facts and details related to the delay. Developer will also inform the City when it expects the delay to end and when it expects the Project to be complete.

If Developer fails to cure such default within such time as may be required by such notice, the City may at its option terminate and cancel the Agreement at the expiration of the cure period.

- 5.3 If the Period of Affordability has been satisfied, Homeowner will be entitled to all net proceeds from the sale of the Property.
- 5.4 In the case of a foreclosure, the Affordability Period will be terminated. Upon receipt of the notice that a foreclosure is pending the City will take positive steps to assert rights to a share of the proceeds from the foreclosure sale. The City will, to the extent feasible, recapture the original HOME Program funds. If Homeowner has failed to make payment to the first mortgage holder, the City will not be obligated to correct any deficient payment. The amount recaptured shall be based on the amount of the net proceeds from the foreclosure sale. If no proceeds are generated, the HOME Program funds will not be recaptured.
- 5.5 The method that will be used to calculate the amount of the recapture funds will be detailed in the Deed of Trust and the Promissory Note. If the affordability period has been satisfied, the City will have no rights to the net proceeds resulting from the foreclosure sale.
- 5.6 If Homeowner ceases to occupy the Property as a Principal Residence, voluntarily or involuntarily, or upon the death of the Homeowner (or where ownership is joint upon the death of the sole survivor having remaining interest), the original HOME Program funds will become due and payable.
 - a. The method used to calculate the amount of the recaptured funds shall be detailed in the Deed of Trust and Promissory Note. If the Property is occupied as the Principal Residence by a valid and authorized descendant of a deceased Homeowner, and the descendant's income level qualifies, the descendant may receive HOME Program funds in the same manner in which the deceased Homeowner qualified, according to the most recent income limits.
 - b. The City, at its discretion, can elect to allow the occupant to live on the Property for the remainder of the Affordability Period. If the Affordability Period has been satisfied, the City will have no interest the Property.
- 5.7 If the Homeowner defaults on the Agreement, the City has the right to allow a non-profit partner to exercise a different but approved recapture/resale provision, if in the best interest of the HOME Program. Failure to resolve the default may result in the City exercising its right to foreclose in order to satisfy the Agreement and comply with the HOME Program.

5.8 If Homeowner does not occupy the Property as their Principal Residence during the entire loan term, the balance will be due and payable or other arrangements can be made that meet HUD regulations as are approved by the City. If the Property is sold, rented, refinance, conveyed, or transferred within the first year the term of the Promissory Note secured by this Deed of Trust, one hundred percent (100%) of the full loan balance as follows:

- a. Principal on the First Note and the Deed of Trust; and
- b. Principal on this Second Note and Deed of Trust to the City of Glendale; and
- c. All costs of sale, including costs of brokers' commissions, escrow fees, title costs and fees, recording costs, etc.; and
- d. Current year taxes, including all pro-rata real estate taxes calculated to the date of sale; and
- e. Borrower's down payment not including the loan from the City to Borrower; and
- f. All Principal paid down on the First Note and Deed of Trust; and
- g. Costs of any improvements to the Property provided such improvements were approved by the City prior to construction and provided that such improvements have been documented to the satisfaction of the City.

5.9 The HOME Program funds will still be due and payable. In the event that a negative Equity situation exists, and the full amount of the HOME funds are not available to be recaptured, the amount of HOME funds required to be repaid to the City will be as set forth in 24 CFR 92.254(a)(ii)(a)93).

a. To calculate the Net Proceeds to be returned to the city use the formula below:

b. To calculate the Net Proceeds available to the homebuyer use the formula below:

$$\frac{\text{Homebuyer Investment}}{\text{Direct HOME Subsidy} + \text{Homebuyer Investment}} \times \text{Net Proceeds} = \text{Funds to Homebuyer}$$

6. Property Management.

6.1 During the Affordability Period, the Homeowner will at his or her own expense maintain the Property in food condition, in good repair, and in decent, safe, sanitary and habitable living conditions for the benefit of that Homeowner's household and any prospective occupants. Homeowner shall maintain the Property in conformance with all applicable state, federal and local laws, ordinances, codes and regulations.

6.2 If Homeowner fails to maintain the Property in accordance with these standards and after at least thirty (30) business days' notice to the Homeowner, the City or the City's contractor or agent may, but shall be under no obligation to, enter upon the Property, make such repairs or replacements as are deemed necessary in the City's discretion, and provide for payment thereof. Any amount advanced by the City to make such repairs, together with interest thereon from the date of such advance at the rate of seven (7) percent (unless payment of such an interest rate would be contrary to applicable law, in which event such sums shall bear interest at the highest rate then allowable by applicable law), shall become an additional obligation of the Homeowner to the City and shall be secured by any Deed of Trust, if not previously reconveyed.

7. Repayment. HOME Program funds that are loaned to the Homeowner are to be remitted (principal and interest, as warranted) to the City to be retained and used as HOME Program income for additional first-time homebuyers.

Beneficiary may also proceed on this default by exercising the same remedies it has on this Homeowner Deed of Trust.

18. Foreclosure and Revival of Applicable HUD Affordability Requirements. If the primary mortgage on the Property is a Federal Housing Administration ("FHA") or a U.S. Department of Veterans ("VA") loan, and it is assigned to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") or the VA, or if a person forecloses on Trustor's interest in the Property or takes a deed in lieu of foreclosure and such person's mortgage or security deed was prior in time to this Homeowner Deed of Trust, this Deed of Trust and promissory note shall terminate and no longer affect the Property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the foreclosed upon or deed in lieu of foreclosure loan is subject to HUD Affordability Period requirements, the covenants and restrictions set forth in this Homeowner Deed of Trust shall be revived and shall remain in full force for the remainder of any applicable affordability period when and if the owner of record or Trustor before such foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure is given acquires or obtains any ownership interest in the Property at any time during such affordability period.

- 2.5 The should Trustor fail to make any payment or to do any act as herein provided, then Beneficiary or Trustee, but without obligation so to do and without notice to or demand upon Trustor and without releasing Trustor from any obligation hereof, may: Make or do the same in such manner and to such extent as either may deem necessary to protect the security hereof, Beneficiary or Trustee being authorized to enter upon said Property for such purposes; appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; pay, purchase, contest or compromise any encumbrance, charge, or lien which in the judgment of either appears to be prior or superior hereto; and, in exercising any such powers, pay necessary expenses, employ counsel, and pay his reasonable attorneys' fees. All amounts so paid, together with interest thereon at the same rate as is provided for in the note secured by this Developer Deed of Trust or at the highest legal rate, whichever is greater, will be part of the debt secured by this Developer Deed of Trust and a lien on the above Property.

- 2.6 To pay immediately and without demand all sums expended by Beneficiary or Trustee pursuant to the provisions hereof, together with interest from date of expenditure at the same rate as is provided for in the note secured by this Developer Deed of Trust or at the highest legal rate, whichever is greater. Any amounts so paid by Beneficiary or Trustee will become part of the debt secured by this Developer Deed of Trust and a lien on the Property and immediately due and payable at option of Beneficiary or Trustee.

3. Recapture Provision:

- 3.1 The HOME Investment Partnerships Act at title II of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 12701 et seq. ("HOME Program"), requires that housing provided through homeowner assistance must be secured for the use of low-income households for a period of affordability. The period of affordability period is determined based on the amount of the HOME Program subsidy.

HOME Funds Provided	Affordability Period
< $15,000	5 Years
$15,000 - $40,000	10 Years
>$40,000	15 Years

- 3.2 Under the HOME Program regulations, the City can recapture of all or a portion of the HOME Program funds if the housing does not continue to be the "Principle Residence" of the family for the duration of affordability.
- 3.3 Utilizing the recapture provisions of the HOME Program regulation, the fair return to the seller will calculate based on the net proceeds from the sale and the amount of the original HOME Program fund investment in the Property. The HOME Program subsidy will be recoverable any time the house is sold before the expiration of the affordability period. The method that will be used to calculate the fair return and the HOME Program subsidy to be recovered will be detailed in the Developer Deed of Trust and Developer Note for the Property. If the affordability period has been satisfied, the seller will be entitled to all net proceeds from the sale of the Property.
- 3.4 In the case of a foreclosure or foreclosure sale, the period of affordability will be terminated. Upon receipt of the notice that a foreclosure is pending the City will take positive steps to assert rights to a share of the proceeds from the foreclosure sale. The City will, to the extent feasible, recapture the original HOME Program investment. If the homeowner has failed to make payment to the first mortgage holder, the City will not be obligated to correct any deficient payment. The amount recaptured will be based on the amount of the net proceeds from the foreclosure sale. If no proceeds are generated, the HOME Program investment will not be recaptured. The method that will be used to calculate the amount of the recapture funds will be detailed in the Developer Deed of Trust and the Developer Note. If the affordability period has been satisfied, the City will have no rights to the net proceeds resulting from the foreclosure sale.

- 3.5 If the original homeowner ceases to occupy the Property as the principal place of residence, voluntary or involuntarily, or upon the death of the owner (or where ownership is joint upon the death of the sole survivor having remaining interest), the original HOME Program investment will become due and payable. The method that will be used to calculate the amount of the recaptured funds will be detailed in the Developer Deed of Trust and Developer Note. If the Property is occupied as the principal residence by a valid and authorized descendant of a deceased owner, and the descendant's income level qualifies, the descendant may receive HOME Program assistance in the same manner in which the deceased owner qualified, according to the most recent income limits. The City, at its discretion, can elect to allow the occupant to live on the Property for the remainder of the affordability period. If the affordability period has been satisfied, the City will have no interest in the occupants of the Property.
- 3.6 If the homeowner is in default of the agreement, the City has the right to allow a non-profit partner to exercise a different but approved recapture/resale provision, if in the best interest of the HOME Program and the customer. Failure to take action may result in the City exercising its right to foreclose in order to satisfy the contract and comply with federal requirements.
- 3.7 If the Property owner does not occupy the home as their principal residence during the entire loan term, the balance will be due and payable or other arrearages can be made that meet HUD regulations that have been approved by the City.

4. It is Mutually Agreed:

- 4.1 That any award of damages in connection with any condemnation or any taking, or for injury to the Property by reason of public use, or for damages for private trespass or injury thereto, is assigned and will be paid to Beneficiary as further security for all obligations secured hereby (reserving unto Trustor, however, the right to sue therefore and the ownership thereof, subject to this Developer Deed of Trust), and upon receipt of such moneys Beneficiary may hold the same as such further security, or apply or release the same in the same manner and with the same effect as above provided for disposition of proceeds of fire or other insurance.
- 4.2 That by accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, Beneficiary does not waive his right either to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure so to pay. Without affecting the obligation of Trustor to pay and perform as herein required; without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby; and without affecting the lien or priority of lien hereof on the Property, Beneficiary may, at its option, extend the time for payment of said indebtedness, or any part thereof, reduce the payment thereon, release any person liable on any of said indebtedness, accept a renewal note therefore, modify the terms of said indebtedness, take or release other or additional security, or join in any extension or subordination agreement. Any such action by Beneficiary or the Trustee at Beneficiary's direction may be taken without the consent of any junior lienholder, and will not affect the priority of this Developer Deed of Trust over any junior lien. Time is of the essence for this Deed of Trust.
- 4.3 That at any time or from time to time, and without notice, upon written request of Beneficiary and presentation of this Developer Deed of Trust and said note(s) for endorsement, and without liability therefore, and without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without affecting the security hereof for the full amount secured hereby on all Property remaining subject hereto, and without the necessity that any sum representing the value or any portion thereof of the Property affected by the Trustee's action be credited on the indebtedness, the Trustee may: (a) release and reconvey all or any part of said Property; (b) consent to the making and recording, or either, of any map or plat of the Property or any part thereof; (c) join in granting any easement thereon; (d) join in or consent to any extension agreement of any agreement subordinating the lien, encumbrance or charge hereof. Any Trustor signing this Trust as a surety or accommodation party or that has subjected the Property to this Trust to secure the debt of another, expressly waives the benefits of A.R.S. § 12-1641.

- 4.4 That upon written request of Beneficiary stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender of this Developer Deed of Trust and said note(s) to Trustee for cancellation and retention, and upon payment of its fees, Trustee will release and reconvey, without covenant or warranty, express or implied, the property then held hereunder, the recitals in such reconveyance, of any matters or facts, will be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. The grantee in such reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto."
- 4.5 That as additional security, Trustor hereby gives to and confers upon Beneficiary the right, power, and authority, during the continuance of this Trust, to collect the property income, reserving to Trustor the right, prior to any default by Trustor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such property income as it becomes due and payable. Upon any such default Beneficiary may at any time, without notice either by person, by agent, or by receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured or the solvency of the Trustor, enter upon and take possession of said Property or any part thereof, in his own name sue for or otherwise collect such Property income, including that past due and unpaid and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees of Beneficiary and Trustee, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as Beneficiary may determine. The entering upon and taking possession of said Property, the collection of such Property Income, and the application thereof as aforesaid, will not cure or waive any default or notice of Trustee's sale hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice. Beneficiary will expressly have all rights provided for in A.R.S. §§ 33-702(B) and 33-807.
- 4.6 That upon default by Trustor in the payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, Beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to Trustee of written notice thereof, setting forth the nature thereof, and of election to cause to be sold the Property under this Developer Deed of Trust. Beneficiary also will deposit with Trustee this Developer Deed of Trust, said note(s), and all documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby.
- 4.7 Trustee will record and give notice of Trustee's sale in the manner required by law, and after the lapse of such time as may then be required by law, Trustee will sell, in the manner required by law, said property at public auction at the time and place fixed by it in said notice of Trustee's sale to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at time of sale. Trustee at its discretion may postpone or continue the sale from time to time by giving notice of postponement or continuance by public declaration at the time and place last appointed for the sale. Trustee will deliver to such purchaser its Developer Deed of Trust conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, expressed or implied. Any persons, including Trustor, Trustee or Beneficiary, may purchase at such sale. The purchaser at the Trustee's sale will be entitled to immediate possession of the Property as against the Trustee or other persons in possession and will have a right to the summary proceedings to obtain possession provided in Title 12, Chapter 8, Article 4, Arizona Revised Statutes, together with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

- 4.8 After deducting all costs, fees, and expenses of Trustee and of this Trust, including cost of evidence of title in connection with sale and reasonable attorney's fees of Beneficiary and Trustee, Trustee will apply the proceeds of sale to payment of: all sums then secured hereby and all other sums due under the terms hereof, with accrued interest; and the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto, or as provided in A.R.S. § 33-812. To the extent permitted by law, an action may be maintained by Beneficiary to recover a deficiency judgment for any balance due hereunder. In lieu of sale pursuant to the power of sale conferred hereby, this Developer Deed of Trust may be foreclosed in the same manner provided by law for the foreclosure of mortgages on real property. Beneficiary will also have all other rights and remedies available to it hereunder and at law or in equity. All rights and remedies will be cumulative.
- 4.9 That Beneficiary may appoint a successor Trustee in the manner prescribed by law. Trustor and Beneficiary authorize Trustee, in the event any demand or notice is made or tendered to it concerning this Developer Deed of Trust or the Property, to hold any money and documents and to withhold action or performance until an action will be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the rights asserted or the property of the demand, notice or action requested and Trustee will be without liability or responsibility for awaiting such court action. A Successor Trustee herein will without conveyance from the predecessor Trustee, succeed to all the predecessor's title, estate, rights, powers, and duties. Trustee may resign at any time by mailing or delivering notice thereof to Beneficiary and Trustor and having so resigned will be relieved of all liability and responsibility to Trustor, Beneficiary or otherwise hereunder. "Trustee" herein will include all successor trustees. Trustee will not be liable for any action taken in its discretion and in good faith, or upon advice of counsel, or upon any information supplied or direction given by Beneficiary. Unless Trustee is adjudged grossly negligent or guilty of intentional wrongdoing or breach of contract, Trustor and Beneficiary will, upon demand, indemnify and hold harmless Trustee against all costs, damages, attorneys' fees, expenses and liabilities which it may incur or sustain in connection with this Developer Deed of Trust or any foreclosure or sale hereof or any court or other action or proceeding arising here from.
- 4.10 That this Developer Deed of Trust applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term "Beneficiary" will mean the owner and holder of the note(s) secured hereby, whether or not named as Beneficiary herein. In this Developer Deed of Trust, whenever the contest so required, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.
- 4.11 That Trustee accepts this Trust when this Developer Deed of Trust, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee may but is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust or of any action or proceeding in which Trustor, Beneficiary, or Trustee will be a party, unless brought by Trustee.

The undersigned Trustor requests that a copy of any notice of Trustee's sale hereunder be mailed to him at his address set forth above.
