GLENDALE VICE MAYOR YVONNE KNAACK HIGHLIGHTS COMMUNITY SERVICE EDUCATION ON “GLENDALE TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Vice Mayor Yvonne Knaack of the Barrel District highlights community service education and encourages citizens to get involved with local government on her new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today.” The show profiles city education programs that are beneficial to all residents, particularly those interested in serving on an HOA, Boards and Commissions, School Boards, service organizations and in running for City Council.

Vice Mayor Knaack discusses the HOA Academy and Glendale University with Michelle Yates, Acting Neighborhood Services Coordinator with the city’s Parks and Recreation division, and Police Chief Debora Black and Police Volunteer Coordinator Marie Shepherd share insight on the Citizen Police Academy.

The Vice Mayor will be retiring from office in December after serving two terms as the Barrel District representative and Vice Mayor.

The show begins airing October 3 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
