Gingerbread Nights. The holiday magic continues in Glendale December 5-6 from 6-10 p.m. each night, with 1.5 million dazzling lights, entertainment, and a special dedication to that iconic holiday treat – gingerbread!

Gingerbread Nights will feature activities for all ages, including inflatable amusements, train rides, horse-drawn carriage rides, holiday arts and craft merchandise and more. The downtown area will be adorned with Gingerbread House decorations – transporting you back to the fairy tales you remember from childhood!

Kids will also enjoy free make-and-take gingerbread crafts, and of course, visits with Santa Claus. Bring your camera, or have Santa's helper snap one for a small fee. If you'd like to sit and watch a flick, bring blankets to sprawl out on the grass to catch the holiday classic "How the Grinch Stole Christmas," showing at 6:30 p.m. both evenings.

In addition to gingerbread treats, all kinds of delicious food and beverages will be available, from kettle corn to funnel cakes to candy apples! Although you can't eat them, visitors will enjoy a display of unique, handmade gingerbread houses created by local chefs.

Glendale Glitters offers free admission and free parking in the downtown area. Click here for more information.

Promoting Inclusiveness Award. In 1963, during his Strength to Love speech, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. stated, "The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy."

Dr. King's message still rings true today and the Glendale Diversity Committee is currently seeking nominations for someone who embraces these ideals with its annual "Promoting Inclusiveness Award" at the Glendale Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Unity Day Luncheon. Nominations are now being accepted for this award based on questions nominees answer and character references.

Nominations should include the following information:

- What has the nominee(s) accomplished that helped to promote inclusiveness?
- What personal beliefs or qualities of the nominee are consistent with those Dr. King lived by and advocated?

The recipient of the award will be honored at the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. 2009 Unity Day Luncheon on Friday, Jan. 16, 2009, which begins at 11:30 a.m. at the Glendale Civic Center, 5750 West Glenn Drive, Glendale, Arizona.

Applications for this award may be submitted online or by mail to City of Glendale, HR Dept, Attn: Janice Pitts, MLK Chair, 5850 W. Glendale Ave, Glendale, AZ 85301. Click here to submit an application online and for more information about the Unity Day Luncheon.

GFD 7th Annual Holiday Toy & Clothing Drive. The items in need include: socks, underwear and jackets (for all ages), plus blankets, pillows and toys. Most needed are items for those between the ages of six and 14. The request is that toys and clothing be new.

For those who cannot make it out to K-Mart, drop off sites have been set-up at all nine Glendale fire stations and the Glendale Fire Marshal's Office. Click here for more information and a list of fire station locations.

'Tis the season to stay safe!

'Tis the season to be busy, rushed and in some cases, let your guard down, so the Glendale Police Department's Community Action Team wants to remind residents of a few safety tips to keep you and your family safer this holiday season.

- Shoppers are among the biggest targets for criminals. Don't become overburdened with too many bags, which could make you an easy target. Make several trips to your car to drop off packages. The best place to store them is the trunk of your car so they are out of sight. Keep your car locked at all times.

- When walking through parking lots, be aware of your surroundings. Try to go shopping with a partner. Walk with confidence! Do not look like a victim!

- After the holidays, do not discard empty boxes that announce your new gifts (i.e. DVD players, TVs, cameras, video games, etc.). Some burglars will drive through the neighborhood to spot what has been thrown away so they can determine which house to target. Break the boxes down and throw them in your trash or recycle can so that they are not visible.

- If you are going out of town, make sure your home appears as if someone is there. Install dusk to dawn sensors or timers on your inside lights and porch lights. Have a neighbor pick up your mail, newspaper or door hangers or you can have the delivery service hold them while you are away.
